- 1) Minutes of the Previous meeting
- 2) Matters Arising
  - a) Quiz Night 02.03.2013 Very enjoyable evening. David and Charlotte would prefer not to do the quiz night every time. Gill Berridge to ask somebody who she thinks might like to do it.
  - b) Cookery Demonstration 17.04.2013 Excellent evening enjoyed by everyone. Hope to repeat it maybe next year. Attended by 44 people.
  - c) Table Top Sale 18.05.2013 13 tables taken, Discussion took place as to whether we allowed a charity to have a table. It was decided not to allow it as we don't know enough about it. David and David to man the door. Will be serving tea, coffee and biscuits.
  - d) German Theme night. Although food was available, the idea was abandoned after David Grenz's research found the cheapest relevant music would be £706. A general discussion took place about putting something on this Summer, but no decision was made.
  - e) Food Fair 22.09.2013 Chris French has this in hand. Many stalls have agreed to attend Gill Berridge has agreed to get some signs for the village. It will take place between 10 am. and 4 p.m.
  - f) Chocolate Demonstration 08.11.2013. The demonstration has been booked for 7 p.m. so children will be able to attend. Mary to contact the demonstrator in October.
- 3) Finance - £3543
- 4) Future Events
  - a) Antiques Fair David Grenz to ask Mellors and Kirk if will do this event in April/May next year.
  - b) Christmas Fair 30.11.2013 Plans now being made for this event. Stalls so far are Ann (gills friend, The little boutique, Gill to ask Willoughby School for carol singing. Usual tombola, cake stall and children's games plus any ideas.
  - c) Wine Tasting 19.10.2103 Chris French to discuss with Jonathan Punt
- 5) Any Other Business
  - a) It was mentioned that the village hall needed a new sign. The Parish Council are dealing with this.
  - b) The village hall committee wish to thanks Sam Stephens for the map he has put in the village phone box. It is a great help for delivery men.
